To whom it may concern

Dear Abake,

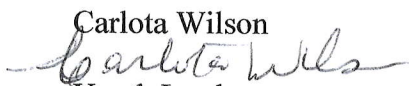

I would like to take some time out to thank you for your kindness this Christmas. You have touched many people and allowed them to bring a smile to the faces of their children. Your selflessness has shown that there are still people out there who care enough to extend a hand to the downtrodden and the forgotten.

On behalf of the Youth Department, I wish again to express our heartfelt thanks to you and your organization. We look forward to working with you again and would definitely benefit positively from a partnership.

Although we started at two p.m., when word got out about your generosity people were still coming after six p.m. and thankfully we were able to extend something to everyone, and no one was turned away empty handed. Again, we are truly grateful to you for accepting our invitation in the same spirit it was extended.

Sincerely yours,

Carlota Wilson
